Later from South America.

NEW YORK, December 3,-The steamer Atanta, with $88,000 in specie from California, ers that the condition of affairs in the South has arrived. The news from South America is important. The Spanish Admiral Pareja continued threatening to bombard Chilian orts, without daring to carry it into effect. He announces the blockade restricted to six of the principal ports-Valparaiso, Coldera, Coonimbo, Aerradyra, Tone and Taleahuana-all others being left open to commerce. This new arrangement attacks the interests of foreigners exclusively, is an acknowledgment of the llegality of the former blockade, and leaves his Government subject to the elemency of neutrals injured thereby.
